Excursions and activities

Each week there is one full-day excursion outside London to visit other famous places in England. In addition students have 5 half day excursions every week. Sunday is a free day to explore the city. Individual students will be supervised by an IH member of staff. On Sundays there is the option to have full-day excursions to beautiful locations such as Norwich, Stonehenge, Winchester and Bletchley Park (as well as the locations on the list below)*

Full day excursions include:

- Oxford with a visit to a university college and punting on the river
- Brighton with Brighton beach and the i360
- Windsor with a trip to the castle
- Bath with a trip to the Roman Baths
- Cambridge with a tour of the university and the famous sites

Half day excursions include:

- The Tower of London
- The Science Museum
- London Eye
- National History Museum
- British Museum

Activities

Students will take part in activities every morning, which include visits to iconic sights and museums in London, as well as fun games and activities. This will be a chance for them to make friends and practice their English outside of the classroom.

*Optional excursions come at an additional cost.
